

SHARON PETERS FROM MT. PLEASANT CROWNED MS. SENIOR MICHIGAN 2016

Sharon works at Nimkee Fitness Center, on the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe Reservation, where she assists on all physical events held throughout the year. The majority of her job consists of teaching a Senior Aquatic Class three days a week and has done so for the past 16 years.

She plays piano for her church and church choir and is instrumental in putting together a program every year. Sharon is on the Board of Directors at the Wheatland Church of Christ and has managed the sound booth at the annual Wheatland Bluegrass festival.

Her special interest is playing the piano which she chose for her talent, playing “How Great Thou Art.” She loves going to her cottage to fish and traveling to different places to take in the beauty of her State. As the new Ms. Senior Michigan, she will have many opportunities to travel sharing her story.

Sharon has lived in Mt. Pleasant most of her life. She takes great pride in helping her four children and ten grandchildren follow their dreams and become model citizens.
